At-a-Glance

- Our mission: We offer compassion to those affected by breast cancer. This is achieved by wedding giveaways and other acts of kindness to individuals or couples who have recently experienced a difficult time with this disease in their lives.
- The Wedding Pink is an annual, heartfelt wedding giveaway package presented to a couple whose lives have been recently touched by breast cancer.
- Cheryl Ungar, the founder of The Wedding Pink, is a 20-year breast cancer survivor and a wedding photographer. In addition to Cheryl donating her own wedding photography services, she has put together an extraordinary team of some of Colorado's top wedding vendors -- all of whom have generously agreed to donate their services and products to ensure The Wedding Pink is a spectacular event for one very special couple.
- The Wedding Pink - 2012 will be held at SaddleRidge on May 17, 2012 in Beaver Creek, Colorado. Submissions will be open nationally during the summer of 2011. All of the details and submission guidelines will be posted on the website. We encourage anyone who meets our submission criteria to submit their story.
- The Wedding Pink - 2011 was held on April 17, 2011 at Mile High Station in Denver, Colorado and was a huge success. The recipients of the wedding were a very deserving couple, Melissa and Jeff. At the tender age of 31 Melissa was diagnosed with breast cancer, Stage 2 invasive ductal carcinoma. Jeff stood by her side and fought the battle with Melissa every step of the way. After everything they had been through we were thrilled to award them the wedding of their dreams.
- The Wedding Pink - 2011 was honored to be featured in The Denver Business Journal, GetMarried.com, Bridal Guide, Rocky Mountain Bride and Couture Colorado. Additionally, Channel 7, KMGH-TV in Denver recently aired a lovely story about The Wedding Pink and Women's World magazine will be publishing a feature on The Wedding Pink in September, 2011.
- Cheryl Ungar Gives operates as a charitable 501(c)(3) organization.
